INTRODUCTORY NOTE.

I LEAVE this sixth issue of the "Annual" to speak for itself. It will furnish abundant proof of the continued liberality and practical devotion of the parishioners of "Old St. Mark's." I will not try, therefore, to spur their good-will to increase of exertion, but simply say, "Be not weary in well-doing." We have a large, brave band of workers whom I thank from my heart, in the name of the Master, for all they have done.

If I have an anxiety, it is as to the future of our Mission Chapel and Schools. They are rendering such fruitful service to the dense and needy population around that I trust they will be resolutely maintained. I ask special attention to the "Guild of the Good Samaritan," and the new "Loan Relief Association."

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT.

THE history of the School begins in 1837. Since that time the character of the neighborhood has changed, and necessarily that of the school. Then it was the custom for members of the Parish to send their children, and teachers were with few exceptions members of the church. Now, in consequence of the up-town movement, our scholars are drawn almost entirely from the surrounding neighborhood ; and although to their honor, in spite of distance, some of our members still remain with us as teachers, we would have been much crippled in our work if friends outside of church membership had not come to our aid, for it will be seen by the reports of our school officers that the school is in a most prosperous condition, and the only limit there can be to our work will be want of room.

As year after year passes away the conviction must become stronger that the Sunday School is becoming the only available means of imparting religious instruction to those who one day will fill our places ; for it is a noticeable fact that few children now attend church services.

In view of this it has been our aim to make the school as far as possible follow the services of the church. Our session commences at 9:30 A. M. with the reading of Scripture sentences, followed by the Confession and Lord's Prayer, a hymn from the Church Hymnal, the Psalter for the day, the Creed, prayer for help and guidance, and hymn. Then the Collect for the day is repeated by the whole school, followed by a few words of practical application by the Superintendent, and at 10 the class lessons begin. From thirty to thirty-five minutes are allowed for these. The Superintendent then reviews the lesson, and at 10:45 we close with hymn, prayer, and benediction.

Every Friday evening, for six months of the year, we have a singing school under the management of our organist, when we practice our hymns and carols.

The school consists of the Infant Class, under the management of Miss Sager and Miss Swainson, in the chapel, and I think that five minutes could not be better spent by any lover of little children than by visiting this class some Sunday morning at 10 o'clock; the Young Women's Bible Class, under the charge of Miss M. Beach, meets in the vestry; the Young Men's Bible Class in the library, under the charge of Mr. Broadbent.

The school proper is divided into thirty-seven classes. In these we use the "Lesson Leaflets," and each teacher is provided with "The Teachers' Assistant." We wish as far as possible that every child in the school shall own a Prayer Book, and, if their parents do not provide them with one, we try to do so. We try to make the schoolroom a pleasant place for the children by showing them that we take an interest in them, and, with religious instruction, giving also some lessons in good manners.

We have had this year our usual Easter and Christmas festivals, with our carols and presents for the children, and also our summer excursion. For these, our Leaflets, Prayer Books, and other things, as also the organist's salary, we have to depend entirely upon the church, as our school collection is always given for some charitable purpose—the past year for our own Mission work. May I then ask for a continuance of the aid given in past years, and even to a greater extent, for it can be well used, and will, I believe, "bring forth fruit a hundredfold."

In closing this report I thank the officers and teachers for the cheerful aid they have given, which has made our school work a pleasant one.

LIBRARY REPORT, JANUARY, 1881.

THE Library consists of 653 volumes, well selected with a view to the moral and intellectual education of its readers. We have for our older readers histories, biographies, books of travel and exploration, with numerous very valuable works of a general character. For our younger readers we have entertaining and instructive books, such as will enable them to more thoroughly remember them. We have also some valuable books, specially for the use of our teachers, to help them to understand questions that occasionally arise in explaining and discussing lessons with their scholars.

Our books, having been in use for several years past, are in some cases considerably the worse for wear. If any of our friends have books they could spare us, to take the place of the damaged ones, we would very thankfully receive them. We purpose ere long getting up a new catalogue of the library, and would be pleased to receive any contributions of books our friends may be kind enough to make at as early a date as possible, so that we may include the books contributed in our new catalogue. During the past year a considerable number have been contributed, for which we feel very thankful to the donors.

Scholars are allowed two weeks in which to finish reading their books, though they generally do so in one week. Our library system is most complete and very successful, thanks to the gentleman who was our Librarian for so many years.

Respectfully submitted,

WM. G. ROGERS, Librarian.

NEW YORK, Jan. 4th, 1881.

REPORT OF THE LADIES' BENEVOLENT SOCIETY.

FOR nineteen years the Ladies' Benevolent Society of St. Mark's Church has been doing its quiet work, a work most Christian in its nature and character—namely, helping others to help themselves.

The object and needs of this Society have so often been laid before the members of the Parish that they need scarcely be repeated, except to say that the generosity and liberality which have sustained and strengthened it in the past must continue in the future to enable the Society to do its work—that of “providing work for the poor women of the Mission,” and of “furnishing clothing to the destitute children of the Mission School.”

During the winter of 1879–’80 sixty permits were given out. One thousand and ten articles were cut and made. Many of these garments were bought by the women for their own use or their children's. Thus the Society does its double charity, giving employment to the needy, and enabling the poor to purchase warm, substantial clothing for themselves, at the lowest possible price.

One hundred and thirty-seven garments were given to the children of the school by the Society, owing to the generous donation of Mr. Rutherford Stuyvesant, made for that purpose.

We have also been greatly helped in our work, as in former years, by the liberal purchases made by large-hearted and earnest members of the Society.

The managers would earnestly solicit donations of money or material with which to begin, continue, and end their brief season of labor from Advent to Easter.

R E P O R T.

THE Missionary Society of St. Mark's Church places a sixth annual report before the Parish, and respectfully calls attention to the fact that the record of work done is carried from November, 1879, to January, 1881, instead of, as heretofore, from November to November, it being thought best that the date of their report should coincide with that of the annual meeting. To this arrangement the comparatively large setting forth of subscriptions, of donations, and of boxes sent out to missionaries, is owing.

The members of the Society aim to render the boxes they fill very complete both in the quantity and quality of the articles provided, endeavoring to always keep in mind that their work is not the exact doling out of a charity nor even the effort of benevolence only, but the payment of a debt —none the less binding because it is not a business engagement—to those who labor and endure in the service of the church on the outposts of civilization, carrying “glad tidings of good things” into the wilderness, keeping the house of God at least abreast with the resorts of the gambler and the drunkard.

The Society acknowledges with many thanks the kindly assistance of the Parish, and looks forward with much hope to the acquirement of a wider sympathy and a fuller power in the future.

REPORT OF MINISTER IN CHARGE OF ST. MARK'S MISSION CHAPEL.

THE past year in St. Mark's Mission Chapel has been one of uninterrupted and successful Christian work. In addition to the work previously reported, some new and extremely successful agencies for good have been this year inaugurated. These will be represented in their respective reports in the Annual, though brief mention should be made of them in the present report.

The Sunday services have been well attended, and many families who belonged to no church have been gathered in.

The Sunday School, under Mr. W. V. King, has been overflowing, taxing sometimes the limits of the building to the utmost extent. The Infant School has increased so largely as completely to fill up the chapel proper. In the main school difficulty is often found to seat the children; while the Bible class, which meets in the study, has been equally successful. The Eclectic Literary Society, which meets in the chapel Monday evenings, has been a source of material improvement among the young people.

During the year several entertainments have been given under its auspices, and the money thus raised has been devoted toward buying some much needed church furniture. The Mothers' Meeting report will be found in its proper place in the Annual. It is gratifying to state that this meeting has been well attended, and has more than paid its expenses. I would take this opportunity to record the faithful services of Mrs. Fleming and her assistants. Mr. James Hamilton has greatly assisted by his presence at these meetings. Several tea-parties have been given by members of St. Mark's Parish, and on Thanksgiving Eve, instead of the usual distribution of turkeys, a festival was provided for the mothers and such of the fathers as would accept the invitation, which seemed to give complete satisfaction.

I would call attention to the Loan Relief Association, whose report in this Annual tells its own story. Organized in March, 1880, to meet special wants, it has had a year of great success, and has been upheld by very strong encouragement.

A peculiar feature in the chapel in the past year has been the Friday Evening Service of Song. The introduction of a good deal of singing and brief addresses into the service has proved of much attraction, and multiplied the congregation on this occasion. So great has been the interest that no break took place even in the heat of summer, and many who attend no church drop in upon this service. In helping to conduct this service of song I have had much assistance from the Rev. J. W. Bonham, Mr. James Hamilton, Mr. Gilbert, and Mr. Tyrrell.

In addition to these means of good, St. Mark's Mission during the heat of summer interested itself in the care of the poor and sick children in its vicinity. Through the liberality of one member of St. Mark's Parish the Day School was given an excursion to Alderney Park, New Jersey, and very many sick children and adults were sent for two weeks into the country, thus saving many precious lives. This most Christian work has been of such blessing in the past that it is to be hoped means will be given me to renew it next summer.

The Guild of the Good Samaritan has during this year proved itself so indeed, feeding the hungry, clothing the destitute, caring for the sick, and helping many to keep their little ones from want. Too much praise cannot be given to this most Christian institution and also to its faithful physician, Dr. J. Blake White, who has never spared himself in serving the sick and dying.

Mention ought also here to be made of a fact never before noticed, that the Mission has found, through Mr. Gilbert, employment for large numbers of young people in responsible houses of business, many of whom now occupy good positions in this city. Mr. Gilbert has also a large class in elocution, who meet at the Mission Wednesday evening.

A report like this, however full, cannot detail all the work done in St. Mark's Mission. Its minister has been always ready to serve not only those belonging to the Mission, but to work among the dense population in its neighborhood who have no pastor. The record of funerals and baptisms and visitations of the sick will show that the work of the Parish has been contributed wherever there has been need.

Much assistance and encouragement has been received by me in the past year, which is acknowledged in the pages of this Annual, and for which I return my sincere thanks.

DAY SCHOOL.

The Parish Day School meets daily in the Mission Building from 9 o'clock, A.M., to 3 P.M. It is now, as it has been through the past year, in a prosperous condition. There are now on record 140 children, 50 boys and 90 girls, from 5 to 13 years of age. The children have been kindly provided for with desks for the school-room, through the kindness of Mr. Rutherford Stuyvesant, Mrs. Hamilton Fish, Mr. Renwick, Mrs. Gen. Mallett and the Misses Hadden. Also a blackboard from Mr. Rutherford Stuyvesant. The children were made happy at Easter by a festival of ice cream, cake and oranges from Mr. Rutherford Stuyvesant; $5 from Mrs. Rutherford; two books from Rev. Mr. Morgan. At Christmas Mrs. Gen. Mallett sent three dozen white aprons, eighteen pairs of warm mittens, and four pairs of wristlets for the children; $5 was donated by a friend for books, as prizes. A gift from Ivison, Blakeman & Co. of one set specimen writing charts.

The school held twenty-one (21) sewing meetings with an average attendance of twenty-four (24) teachers, and two hundred and eighteen (218) scholars. The children made six hundred and ninety-four (694) garments, for which they paid $36.17. The mite box collections amounted to $21.43, and the subscriptions to $19.00; $12.14 were received in weekly installments through Miss Bowne. There was a special subscription to the festival of $22.05, and a large quantity of cake. In connection with the usual work, an effort was made to incite the scholars to habits of neatness and industry in their home life by means of the appropriate verses "Come little girl and get your broom," and "I'm called little house-keeper," written by Miss Bowne and adapted to music by Miss Emma Cornell.

THE LOAN RELIEF ASSOCIATION OF ST. MARK'S PARISH, was organized March 11th, 1880. Officers were elected and the following Constitution adopted.

I.

This Association is intended to help people to help themselves :

1st.—By lending money to those in temporary need.

2d.—By lending articles necessary for the comfort and recovery of the sick.

3d.—By receiving money, in small sums, from those who wish to lay it up for their own benefit.

II.

The officers of this Association shall be a President, a Vice-President, a Secretary, and a Treasurer, who, with five managers, shall constitute the Executive Committee of the Association.

III.

The Executive Committee shall meet fortnightly at the Chapel, or at some other place appointed by the President.

IV.

All loans in money shall be made by the Executive Committee. The borrower must give a receipt and a promise to pay within a given time. No second loan will be made to any person until the first is entirely repaid.

V.

Articles for sickness may be loaned by any two members of the Executive Committee, and the loan reported at the next regular meeting.

VI.

Money on account may be received by any member of the Executive Committee at any time. The member receiving money shall give the same to the Treasurer at the next regular meeting.

The Association met fortnightly in the Mission Chapel during the months of April, May and June, adjourning July 1st, subject to the call of the President.

The meetings were resumed October 5th, 1880.

A circular asking for gifts of money and material was prepared in March, and copies of it distributed among the congregation. In response to this, money to the amount of $132 has been received for the general fund and $50 for a Maternity Basket.

Articles for use in sickness have been given by members of the Parish. These articles are kept in the Mission Building, in a wardrobe given to the Association. From time to time money in small sums have been lent by the Executive Committee.

Articles for sickness have been lent to many persons, and four mothers have been supplied with bedding and clothing for themselves and their infants.

No money has been received from any one wishing to lay it up.

Visits have been made by members of the Executive Committee to all the cases of sickness reported at the meetings.

A member of the Committee is at the Mission every Saturday morning to lend any article in the possession of the Association, but loans of money are only made at the regular meeting.

The thanks of the Association are due to John Blake White, M.D., for numerous visits made at the request of its officers during the past six months.

To the sick and destitute of the Parish he has given unremitting care and attention, often visiting many times those to whom he has been called, and watching over their recovery.

The Association also acknowledges the following gifts :

7 sheets, 4 bolster cases, 1 counterpane, Mrs. Roberts; 14 pillow cases, 1 rubber sheet, Mrs. Cannon and Mrs. Fleming; 3 night shirts and old linen, Mrs. S. H. Cornell; 1 wardrobe with shelves, linen and cotton shirts, collars and cuffs, towels, handkerchiefs, counterpane, air-pillows, socks, gloves, bottles, canton flannel and old linen, 150 articles in all, from Mrs. Dean; 6 sheets and 6 pillow cases, Mrs. Toucey; a Maternity Basket containing 125 articles for mother and child from Mrs. Hamilton Fish; 1 air-pillow, parcels of clothing from Mrs. Van Name, Miss Bullus, Mrs. Webster and Miss Hadden.

The Mothers' Meeting.

Thursday Evenings from 7 to 9 o'clock, from Advent to Easter.

Conducted by - - - - - Mrs. FLEMING,
Assisted by - Miss HELEN BEACH, and others.

The Mothers' Meeting is for the purpose of making garments which are sold to them at cost, none being given away. The meetings have been largely attended during the winter, and productive of much religious and temporal good; 782 yards of material were used in cutting 272 garments, for which the women paid in full seventy-three dollars and seventy-six cents, ($73.76). There have been fifteen sewing meetings, and the number of names upon the list is one hundred and nine members, most of whom are interested attendants and are present when their family cares will permit. A very pleasant feature of the meetings has been the numerous tea-parties given by members of the Parish to the mothers, who have heartily enjoyed the kindness, as well as the music and song and recitations which have accompanied these entertainments.
